Training Developer (ILS5003)

Kongsberg Defence Australia is a part of Kongsberg Defence and Aerospace which delivers mission critical solutions to customers around the globe. Kongsberg Defence Australia is delivering these solutions to meet the unique military needs of Australia. We live our core values: determined, innovative, reliable and collaborative.

Kongsberg Defence Australia is a Defence industry manufacturer and supplier, with offices in Canberra and Adelaide. We are seeking an experienced training developer to join our LAND 8116 team as a Training Support Specialist. The preferred location is Adelaide or Canberra, but candidates in other locations will be considered.

Please note the role will involve routine domestic travel. The successful candidate will have to work closely with our parent company Kongsberg Defence and Aerospace based in Norway, and our customer based in Victoria, Australia. The role is to commence after 8th January 2024.

About the Role:

- The successful candidate will spend time developing in-depth knowledge of the CORTEX C4 System software and hardware. You will then put this knowledge into practice developing training materials for delivery to customer personnel.
- You will also provide on-site support and system knowledge to our Customer on a regular basis, as well as providing specialist support during Introduction Into Service Training for Army.

Main Tasks

- Develop in-depth system knowledge in preparation for training delivery.
- Update and modify existing training materials to reflect new system functionality.
- Deliver system hardware and software training to customer personnel.
- Provide support to Kongsberg and Customer training activities taking place in various locations.
- Provide regular on-site expertise at customer premises as part of ongoing duties.
- Follow and adhere to the Kongsberg Corporate Values.
- Performance of all duties to be undertaken with a strong adherence and personal commitment to the Kongsberg Workplace Health and Safety framework and requirements.
- Undertake training as required in Kongsberg policy, procedures and work methods.

Required Qualifications and Experience:

- Certificate IV in Training and Assessment or similar further/higher education qualification is essential.
- Experience in the development, delivery, evaluation and review of training courses is essential.
- 4+ years practical adult learning experience is highly desirable, preferably in the Defence environment.
- Hands-on experience working with defence equipment is highly desirable.
- Knowledge and experience of Integrated Logistics Support and Logistics Support Analysis is desirable.
